

Alexandr Borodin: Prince Igor - Polovtsian Dances

Conducting: Zoltán Bolyky

Béla Bartók: Romanian Folk Dances

Zoltán Kodály: Dances of Galánta

Robert Schumann: Symphony No. 3 in E-flat major, Op. 97. „Rhenis”

Conducting: Tamás Vásáry

KODÁLY ZOLTÁN WORLD YOUTH ORCHESTRA

7.30 pm Thursday 25 July 2019

Minorite Church, Vienna

Minoritenplatz 2A, 1010 Vienna, Austria

Free Admission!

The Young Musicians' Summer Academy has been organized for the past 19 years. It attracts talented musicians, students of music academies, junior and senior teachers working in musical higher education from all over the world. The Kodály Zoltán World Youth Orchestra, whose members represent 14 different nationalities, rehearses during the Summer Academy. After the course the ensemble goes on concert tours both in Hungary and abroad. For the last couple of years they have performed in the Unesco Centre, Paris – France, Milano – Italy, Bellaggio Festival – Italy, Bratislava and Galánta – Slovakia, Academy of Performing Arts, Praha – Czech Republic, Ljubljana – Slovenia, Eisenstadt - Austria, and Romania.

The artistic leader and conductor of the orchestra is Tamás Vásáry, who is also world-famous as a brilliant pianist. He holds several prizes and awards conferred upon him for the high level of his activity as an artist. These include the Kossuth Prize, the Commander's Cross of the Order of Merit of the Republic of Hungary, the Golden Prize of the President of Hungary and the Cruciferi Sancti Stephani Regis. He also holds the title of the Artist of the Nation and was elected Man of the year in 1999.

Sponsors:

Nemzeti Kulturális Alap

EMBERI ERŐFORRÁSOK
MINISZTERIUMA

DEBRECENI
EGYETEM

DEBRECENI EGYETEM
ZENEISKOLAI KÖZPONT

Conservatory Foundation, Foundation for the Art of Future